Lasting Impressions

The faces are numerous, but the expressions are unique. Each individual has his own dreams, his own future. But this short period of school life has left a long lasting impression on each and every person. The group as a body will long be remembered by more than just a pair of numbers. The memories have been etched to withstand the wear of a lifetime.

- A. Cathy Niland enjoys the fall.
  - B. Rich Prestegaard displays true South spirit at the Special Olympics run.
  - C. Carl Brandt shows that studying is not all hard work.

- D. Tricia Michie, Becca Cohen, Stephanie Corona, and Sharon Galney share a special kind of friendship.
- E. Chris Murphy takes a break from studying.
- F. South students love to get in a picture.

ofriends Forever

No matter where we go after graduation we keep in our hearts the special memory of the friends we made in high school. They are the people who make us smile after a day that just didn't go right. They help pick up our books when we drop them in the mud and have taken extra careful notes when we've been absent.

It seems hard to imagine a time when we won't see our friends every day, but regardless of where they are, they'll always be just a phone call away.

Neurending Dreams

uring high school many dreams are realized, what we want to be, who we want to become . . . . Other dreams are fulfilled, being an athlete, leading a club, going to the prom . . .

Our hopes and goals become an important part of our lives. Countless options and possibilities are opened to us. Clichéd as it is, our lives are just beginning and our dreams are neverending.

Infinite Donizons

Just over the norizon lies in orizon lies in orilliant future — a future of innumberable possibilities. Look beyond the boundary of sky and earth, of present and future, and of the time to come. Life is finite, but the extent to which one lives is truly infinite.

- A. Davidd Levy and Tine Octaerfeld prepare for a math exam.
- B. Brian Meagher and Rich Cunningham get a view from above.
- C. Mike Seeger hard at work.
- D. Relaxing in the lobby: Jack Krause and Dehlia Rizk
- E. Working on a research paper: David Marino
- F. This group has the spirit for Saturday's game.
- G. Just hanging around the lobby.

Dedication

As our teacher you have taught us well, instilling knowledge in us that will last a lifetime. As our friend you have shared our laughter, soothed our tears, and supported our endeavers.

Through your very special characteristics, you have helped us to see ourselves as unique individuality and taught us to appreciate the individuality of others.

With respect and appreciation, we, the class of 1987, dedicate our yearbook to you, Ms. Denise Kissane, teacher and friend.

A SPECIAL DAY

The Special Olympics is more than just a competition. It is the day when special athletes of all ages join together to celebrate the achievements of the human spirit and will. Along with Let me be brave in the the running and jumping medals the atudent volunteers share in something even greater: the love that these true Olympians feel in their heart and share with the world, whether they have won or lost their event.

Let Me Win But if I cannot win attempt.

REMEMBER WHEN?

Do you remember when milk cost six cents? When the opposite sex was "Gross"? When coming home loaded from a party meant you had gotten a full loot bag? Do you remember playing games like pin the tail on the donkey, Mother May I? and Red Light, Green Light 1-2-3? Do you remember reading Dr. Seuss? Watching Sea-same Street, The Brady Bunch, and Gilligan's Island. Getting up early on Saturday mornings to watch cartoons Do you remember when schoolwork was easy and you used crayons? Do you remember playing outside until dark, and still not wanting to come inside? Do you Remember...

AFTER HOURS

For many students, after school time is more than just soap operas and shopping. These students work hard to earn some extra spending money or money for their futures. They must find a balance between working and their homework, and still manage to have time to enjoy themselves. It's not always easy, but if asked, these hardworking people will probably say it's worth the effort.

- A. Rich Jacobson serves ice cream at Baskin Robbins
- B. Frank Urzi working hard at Sam Goody
- C Kathy McNaught makes a shake
- D. For Lynn Batemarco, pizza is more than just a great snack

- F. Fancy Feet!
- H. Pierce McManus is the ultimate in prepdom
- G. Jim and Bridle looking good

CLASSY CLOTHES

Even though the students in our school are not models, their clothes often could be found in a fashion magazine. The "hot" fashions of this school year have been seen throughout the halls. The styles have ranged from very short to quite long. This year's line is a long, sleek look which is used in the skirts and jackets of the season. Also, as a reminder of the past. the collegiate sweaters have been a big hit. The styles have covered a wide area, ranging from the army look to the conservative, preppy look. The colors have been very bright with all shades of the spectrum. Fancy footwear with leggings is always a nice touch. Boots of all kinds have been very popular. Shoes can be anything from the simple Black Reebok sneakers, to the classic penny loafers, and everything in between

Jeans and sneakers were replaced with satin and lace on the night of May 15, 1986. We danced the night away to loud music and romantic melodies, such as "We've Got Tonight", the theme song of the evening

Flowers, both real and silk, burgundy and pink crepe paper and streamers transformed our lobby and added to the romance of the evening. For those who went, the Junior Ball was a night to remember

- A. Ann Marie Patisso leaves her mark
- B Lisa Bein and escort enjoy the ro
- C. Craig Butler and Gina Edmonds sit this one out
- D. Michelle Newmeyer is escorted down the steps
- E. Billy Tretz and Danica Muller proceed down the stairway
- F Dancing to the beat of the night

HAUNTING THE HALLWAYS

During the school days the hallways reverberate with swarms of students trying to weave their way through the traffic. Sometimes it seems that there is never enough time between classes. Students manage to go to the bathroom, get to their lockers, chat with their friends, and finally get to class - all before the late bell

At the end of the day, after the last student has emptied his locker, an eerie silence pervades the hallways. It seems strange to walk through the school without bumping into friends. The silence doesn't last long, however, and at 7.30 the next morning the lively chatter of students can be heard again.

- A. Carol Lane warms-up for Karate
- B. Dee Dee Nicolas, Jon Capobianco, Chris Murphy, and Kathy Garvey have time to talk between classes

VIKING MAGIC

After this year's victory in the North-South football game the Homecoming was a perfect way to finish. The day was definitely one to remember. After staying until the last moment to enjoy the win, everyone rushed home and got dressed. Then we went out to dinner; eating spaghetti while you're wearing a white dress is extremely dangerous. We finally made it to the dance and saw that the lobby looked really great. It was hard to imagine that all the football players who had been covered with mud were now standing there in suits. Everyone got into the mood really quickly since the music was great. Then the nominees for homecoming king and queen were announced; Danine Verlezza and Greg Casarella were really excited when they won. The evening flew by too quickly. As my head hit the pillow, visions of my night came back. I hoped my pictures came out well; I would remember this night for-

A DIRECT HIT

It is February 14th and a rash of cupid's arrows is spreading throughout the school

Flowers, candy, and cards are visible in the grasp of elated students. They might be holding a flower received during homeroom from a friendly volunteer. The accompying card os brief and flattering. It might be signed by a boyfriend, a girlfriend, a sibling, or the infamous Secret Admirer

Hopefully this Valentine's day will be remembered with cheer and joy and with the promises of a sweetheart

BREAK TIME

School Lunch is characteristically awful. The meats are indistinguishable from the vegetables, and the cafeteria's students are often reminiscent of a Meadowland's crowd

However, Seniors sometimes break away from the chaos of fifth or sixth period. They jump in their car, and travel nearby for a more respectable meal

Lunch acts as a break in the school day routine. Although it is only 45 minutes in length, there might enough time to finish some homework or to make a necessary phone call or attempt to order out for pizza. But for seniors especially, it is an escape.

La Fiesta Española

At first glance an Oscar Meyer commercial, classical guitar, and flan don't seem to have anything in common; however, the Spanish Fiesta brought these items and much more together, it all began back in September on the first day of school when Mr. Lima started talking about the Fiesta to his Spanish 4 students. Since then we had endless planning sessions trying to prepare for the big event. Hearing that I would have to cook was the worst part. I didn't know who would want to eat anything that I could prepare, but I have to admit that the food turned out pretty good. Then we had to learn La Canta de Amistad, a Spanish song about peace in Latin America. Half the class couldn't even carry a tune in English forget about singing in Spanish

Then the day of the Fiesta, Friday December 12, finally came. We transformed the cafeteria into a restaurant with "atmosphere." Between the balloons, decorations, and tablecloths, the cafeteria was beyond recognition. The night finally came; I couldn't believe that we'd made it on time. Everyone was so excited and prepared to have a great time. First, the quests of the students were tasting many different Spanish foods such as gazpacho, paella, and arroz con pollo. There was a wide variety of entertainment from the classical Spanish guitarist, Jamie Andres, to a special version of Vuelto Loco and La Bamba. One of the highlights of the evening was the Spanish commercials that the students performed; some of the favorites were Oscar Meyer, Safeguard, Miracle Whip, Bartles and Jaymes and Hefty's. Even after all the hard work, the Fiesta was still worth it. I'm just sorry that it's over

SADD CREATES FORCEFUL IMPACT

The name of our school used to be displayed on the wall in the front of the school. Due to vandalism, however, the letters are no longer there. One fall morning, everyone recovered a startling message courtesy of SADD, For once, the wall was utilized for a good purpose: education. The members of SADD reminded us what can happen if you drink and drive. Hopefully the impact of this forceful message will remain in our hearts and minds long after school is over

ADDING EXCITEMENT TO THE BAND

As I waited silently, I felt butterflies in my stomach. It was my first time marching and I was extremely nervous. What if I dropped my baton? Everyone would laugh and tease me. I would be so embarrassed. Then I heard the whistles. One, two, three, four . . . Quickly I glanced around to make sure that I was in step. So far O.K. Oh no, everyone was already marching around the field. Once I caught up and I concentrated on my twirling. I was so nervous, how could I remember the routine. I reminded myself just to smile Then it was time for the toss. As I threw the baton up, I prayed that it would come back down in the right spot. Oh my God -What a nightmare. As the baton spun I concentrated. It was right where I wanted it. Holding my breath, I reached out to catch it Slowly I looked down. The baton was in my hand. Hearing the applause, I smiled. As we marched off, I realized that I had made it I couldn't wait until the next game. I wanted to go back on the field and twirl again.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Every week members of of time Interact and the Community Service Club spend time visiting with residents at Freidwald House Nursing Home, Letchworth Village and Pomona Nursing Home. What they do is very simple: these students help bring a little bit of attention and a lot of love to people who often are not able to see their families or other loved ones for long periods

Many times, in addition to talking about events from the outside world, student's are priviledged in sharing in the memories and experiences of the older people in the nursing home. This perhaps, is one of the most exciting aspects of volunteering in these programs; finding out the stories behind the faces.

SHOUTING IT OUT

Without the cheerleaders, the football games would lack flare. They voice words of encouragement, no matter what the score or weather. Their carefully planned routines require a great deal of work. They spend many days after school, working to perfect cheers and steps. It is obvious from the crowd in the stands that their work is effective. Their shouts are often echoed by the audience, bringing life to otherwise boring moments, and enhancing the excitement of touchdowns and field goals

But the cheerleaders' enthusiasm does not end at the football field. Their spirit carries through to the school days, and their vigor is noticeable throughout South's halls. The cheerleaders help to sustain our high school image. Their spirit will long be remembered

HITTING AHEAD

Despite a slow start, the 1986 Varsity baseball team, under the leadership of Coach Bladel, made it to the playoffs. The club had, without a question, tremendous individual talent easily capable of gaining a champion-ship title. Unfortunately, this was prevented by the combination of inconsistent hitting and pitching. Quality hitting and fielding were demonstrated by Charlie Maneri, Joe Bavaro and Jim Cann. These were the players who would be the best bets to drive in a runner under a pressure situation.

Due to often inconsistant pitching by the staff, who all incurred injuries at one time or another, starting and relieving pitchers were never clearly established. However, well pitched games can be credited to Tim Neil, Sean Jacobs and Louis Sigillo. The most consistant pitcher was Tom McKeon who pitched well enough to win half of the team's games. The season highlight was the victory over North in the playoffs. This helped lift everyone's spirit after a slightly frustrating season.

DOING IT RIGHT

The 1986 season for the Viking Lacrosse team was one of rebuilding for next year. Led mostly by juniors, the team had a 6-10 record but are expected to dominate the league next year

The 1986 co-captains Matt Vanderlinde and Steve Liscio led the team and had an outstanding year. Attackers John Dowd and Rich Cunningham burned up the field this year while Bill McGrogan tended the net

One of the highlights of the season was the win against North Rockland at the end of the season. South's 9-4 victory crushed North Rockland's chances of making the playoffs.

Although South's record wasn't as good as they had hoped for, next year the team will definitely be a force to be reckoned with

MAKING IT WORK

The 1986 season held many challenges for the girl's lacrosse team After losing key players Sheila Barnes, Kristen Vanderlinde, Theresa Dowd, and Bette Harrow, senior captains Missy Goldberg, Kerry Vanderlinde, and Lynn Deforest had to work extra hard to succeed.

Varsity finished their season with a good record. The improvement from the 1985 season was largely due to all conference player and leading scorer Kerri Vanderlinde. Missy Goldberg and Lynn DeForest were also allconference

The team consisted of many sophomores and juniors who show great promise for next season. The team is looking forward to an even better season in the spring of 1987.

RUNNING AHEAD

The boy's spring track team finished the 1986 season with a 2-3 record, and finished sixth in the county meet. Captain Alex Rios lead the team in hurdles and sprinting as well as winning the Baton Award and receiving all section honorable mention for 110 meter hurdles. Other captains were Greg Deely, Paul Lockwood, who was the M.V.P. and junior Bill Derasmo who received the Coach's Award and was sixth in the county for the mile. Junior Mike Shiel also brought honors to the team as he came in third in the pole vault.

The team looks to improve upon last year's record with a good distance team, featuring a squad of returning lettermen. These include Andy Moss, Brian Condon, DiDi Nicolas and Mike Shiel. Anthony Armenio will also be returning as a sprinter.

BRIDGING THE DISTANCE

The 1986 fall cross country team had a very good season. Outstanding senior runners included Brian Condon, Bill Derasmo, Andy Moss, DiDi Nicolas, Tom Baskind, Karen Walker, and Melissa Leifer. The girls achieved a 5-1 record, and the boys ended up with a 4-2 record. The boys team came in third place in the county meet.

Coach Lebofsky commented, "I feel great about last season. For the first time we had a very good assistant coach, Andy Kohlbrenner who helped us a lot. He brought tremendous spirit to the team." Dr. Lebotsky added that he has high expectations for next year's team

ANOTHER GREAT RETURN

The boy's tennis team had an exemplary season in 1986, finishing second place in the conference. Despite starting off slowly, losing their first three matches, the team managed to come from behind and win their next twelve out of thirteen games with a twelve and four record

Outstanding players included first team all county player and team captain Scott Cooper, first team all county doubles Eric Katz and Mike Edelsteni, third team all-county player Grag Meyer, and third team all County doubles Ken Seitel and Mihir Goswami. Mike Caplan and Brian Rosen also play well

An added highlight of the year was when Coach Ken Holvig was named Coach of the year

AIMING FOR ACES

This year, the fall tennis season of 1986 began with the prediction from the newspapers that Clarkstown North would be the champs. However, our girls varsity tennis team reigned supreme. With a 53 game winning streak and a 13 and 1 record this season, the girls tennis team proved themselves to be the true champions

With returning Seniors, (co-captains) Lysa Taglia and Jodie Aronwald, Andrea White, Chrissy Larkin, Karen Levine, along with five other returning sophomores and Juniors plus star Sophomore first singles player Vivian Chang, the girls team was an unstoppable force in the league

Along with the league 1 title, the team took first place in the Rockland County Invitational Tournament. Coach Ken Holvig has high hopes for next season. He says that since all of the singles players are returning, and there are many promising JV players the 1987 team will be just as dominating as the 1986 team

SPIKING TO VICTORY

Thinking back to the incredible season his volleyball team had, coach Al Campora is impressed. The team ended with a 21-3 record, winning the championship games against North in the final fall tournament 15-9, 15-12

Campora commends his team captains: AnnMarie Patisso, Amy Wechsler and Danine Verlezza. Other outstanding players were: Senior Dahila Rizk and Juniors Joanie Amendola, Kristi Stafford, and Missy Vitro. Coach Campora sums things up by saying "I knew we would have a good team. Our objective was to make it to the top four. Our next goal was to be number one. I knew they had the talent, it was just confidence and playing as a team. This accomplishment would make them win, and they did They really deserve it. I had the easy job — just watching, they did the real work."

IT'S TEE TIME

This year's golf team took the league by surprise led by co-captains Pete Eisenzoph and Marc Breuer, returning seniors Paul Guarino, Peter Katz, and Steve Allen. They showed the way to a 14-5 overall record while amassing a 9-3 record within the league. The season was highlighted by their County Championship status. Pete Katz earned medalist honors by recording a team leading 82. Paul Guarino, the team's number one man also paced the team to this upset. The Vikings are a young team which shows tremendous promise. Some up and coming prospects include Andy Montalbano, Chris Albers, and Paul Rothstein. Others who contributed to the year's success are Steven Funk. Mike Rothstein, and Dave Warren. One member of the team says that next year's Vikings could well be one of the greatest teams it has ever known.

AINT IT A KICK!

Score another one for the boy's soccer team of 1986. With a record of 7 and 9 the Varsity team was a strong power in high school soccer. With returning Seniors, John Barry, Carl Brandt, Mike Burkert, John Walsh, Mike Schwalenberg, Dan Kelly, Igor Manoylovich, Joe Phillips, and Brian Meagher, the team was full of experienced players. With help from underclassmen: Mike Donoghue, Tom Heim, Joe Sorrentino, Brian Rose, and Ron Young, the team will look forward to another great year. With two sophomores, Scott Jacobs, and star goalie Tom Heim, led by Coach Glen Nelson, the team should have many more powerful seasons.

SHOOTING FOR SUCCESS

For the past three years the girl's soccer team has been champion. This year, with the loss of only two starters, the team expected to reign again. Unfortunately, the team lost in the section 1 final game to North Rockland by a heart-breaking 1-0 score. The team ended its season with a successful record

For the third year in a row, Maureen McCarthy was named to the all-section team. Gina Edmonds and Kathy Garvey were also named. Sisters Christy and Cathy Davidson were given honorable mention. The top scorers for the year were Kathy Garvey and Christy Davidson. # A VIKING'S FAVORITE PASTIME — FOOTBALL.

South's football team had a disappointing record of 2-7, but one of its victories came when it counted — against North for the Homecoming. South won the battle 7-3 on Tom Folley's touchdown run.

Other highlights of the season included a victory over Ramapo on South's homefield. The game featured South's special teams as Steve Whitfield ran back several punt and kick-off returns for touchdowns Coach Scro cited valuable contributions from captains Frank Surace, Jaime Dowd, Jim Killerlane, and Rich Prestegaard. Jim won All-Section and All-Conference honors for the third year in a row. Other All-Conference and All-Section winners were Tom DcDermott, Tom Foley, and Jamie Dowd

The season ended on a down note as Coach Scro announced his retirement from coaching football at South. Mr. Scro brought several championships to South and will be sorely missed by all in the program.

A SPLASHING SUCCESS

This year, the Clarkstown South girls swim team was full of many returning stars. Led by captains Lisa Giglio, and Kerry Ann Sullivan, the team was a threatening force to many schools. With returning stars; Beth Capobianco, Kathy Dahm, Jessica Dempsey, Jeanne Maloney, Lisa Giglio, Michelle Glaser, and Susan Olivo, the team was definitely not lacking experience. Beth Capobianco placed first in the section 1 championship 500 yard freestyle and Newberg Free Academy. Even though senior stars Beth, Lisa, and Kerry Ann Sullivan will not be here next year, the hopes are high because of the new stars, Eileen Buckley, Megan Bradley, and Ronnie Glaser. ## RUNNING AWAY WITH IT ALL

Boys Cross-Country: Third Place in County

The '86 boys cross-country team raised a few eyebrows. They weren't predicted to finish high in any meets, but they proved the critics wrong. They finished third in the country meet which is the highest finish for the first time in five years. Their 4-2 record yielded third in the division, Bill Derasmo, the MVP, narrowly missed the state meet but was named All-Section

I. Mike Shiel and Brian Condon were named Honorable Mention All Section I. Shiel, who won the coach's award, could lead a strong viking team next year.

Girls Cross-Country

The '86 girls cross-country team was a team that could've won Counties or a Section title. They were hit hard by injuries. Karen Walker and Cindy Parliment were enroute to a great season but went down to injur-kings to a winning season(5-1 record) despite the heavy loss. Kim Newsome, the MVP, was an alternate for the State Meet and was named All Section I. Newcomer Colleen Shine performed well and received the Coach's Award. Newsome, Parliment, and Shine form the nucleus of a talented South team next year.

SPORTS: MORE THAN

As the saying goes, "It doesn't matter if you win or lose it's how you play the game." Viking athletes demonstrate this quality to the utmost

They, along with many other students and faculty members, donate their time to the special olympics, spreading love and pride and a sense of accomplishment to very special athletes. They also give of themselves by teaching younger students the dangers of substance abuse.

While on sporta teams, students form enduring friendships, and experience a sense of commitment to a common goal. These values will last for their lifetimes, helping them in whatever they do

SHOOT FROM THE HIP

South's boys basketball team finished its season with a misleading 6 and 9 record. Although the record is disappointing, there are many memorable moments from this years season

When talking about highlights, one has to mention upset wins over class. B's number one team Albertus Magnus, class A's number one team New Rochelle and arch rival Clarkstown North. The victory basket against Clarkstown North is a home game to be remembered for years to come

Large contributions in the season were made by co-captains Jamie Dowd and Kevin Hastings. The team also had late season help from high scoring junior Adam Guerrero. Junior Gregg Meier was the team's high scorer and was elected to the All League-1 team for his efforts.

Victory is Sooo Great!

This year's girls basketball team was the best team Clarkstown South has ever seen. This is due to the balance. teamwork, and depth of the team The team was equipped with a great number of superior athletes. For the first time in Rockland County, two teammates scored over 1,000 career points. They were Karen Walker and Maureen McCarthy, Maureen was the first junior to ever score 1,000 pts. The team won Conference A, and ended the regular season with a perfect, undefeated record of 20-0. The average number of points the team won by was 20. Nine times the team won by over 26. The closest any team ever came was 10 points. In addition, in a sectional game the team scored 85 points, which is the most points ever scored by a South girls team. That win made the team 22-0, which is the most amount of games any girls' South team has won. The team was led by seniors and tri-captains, Karen Walker, Anne Marie Patisso, and Gina Edmonds. Junior, Maureen McCarthy, who was the leading scorer and sophomore Susan Miani, Liz Katz, a senior, and sophomores, Tina Hogarty and Helen Shine provided strong support coming off the bench. Throughout the season the team was ranked as high as 2nd in New York State, and at the time of press they were en route to the finals

AS SWEET AS SUGAR

Who ever said ice hockey is a sport just for boys? The girls on the Sugar Cup have proven them wrong, with the help of Coach Marin and his son Chris, who also attends South, the team is strong, skilled, and ready to win. The girls had two practices a month, and in the approaching weeks to the big game, they got together a few times a week. The Sugar Cup takes place on March 14. The coaches are tough on the girls and expect a lot from them. Coach Marin teaches the girls hockey techniques while the figure skaters of the group help with the skating. Put this all together and you get a team of winners

ACTION ON THE ICE

Although this year was cited as one of rebuilding for the Viking Hockey Team Coach Ken Holvig had high hopes for the season. With almost a 500 record the Vikings finished very respectably in their tough division. The South team was led by Captains Jim Killerlane and Kevin Boggan. Defenseman Jim Killerlane is a four year player who is in his senior year. Kevin Boggan is a junior center who will be back next year. Other starters on the team are defensemen Chris Marin, Tom Prendergast and Brian Bohan. Forwards for the team are Dave Falk, Mike Wechsler, Mike Araneo, Bill Milaccio, Andy Chalfin, Joe Ditta and Joe Pellegrino. An excellent freshman newcomer, Mike D'Angelo, tended goal this year for South sharing the time with goalie Steve Piscelli. ### HITTING THE BOOKS

I look up at the clock 2:00 A.M and I'm still studying for the killer Math test I have tomorrow. If only I understood what logarithms really were!! I stare at the book for a few more minutes and then, out of the blue, I begin to understand! Don't ask me how or even why but at this moment I love math!

I just got my test back. I got a 96! All I can say is that all the studying that I did was definitely worth it. Just to see the look of pleasure on my teacher's face instead of her usual grimace was reward enough. (of course the 96 didn't hurt either)

GETTING PHYSICAL

The Gym is one room that every student is familiar with Although there are some students who are athletically inept there are still ways to learn from physical education. #### PUNCHING THE KEYS

I sit and stare at the lifeless screen. At the end of a long hard day of schoolwork this screen becomes so tiring to look at. My dad is always telling me about when he went to high school back in 1987. He said that they had real live teachers and to ask a question you had to raise your hand! That must've looked awfully funny. He says instead of sitting at the same computer for 8 hours each day, the school day was broken up into 8 parts, periods. My dad always talks about these things at dinner when I start complaining about school. He told me that when he was in the ninth grade he had to walk up three flights of stairs (count 'em, three), try to slam his books into a tiny metal closet that he couldn't reach, and still face an entire day of hard work. I don't know about you, but to me that sounds like cruel and unusual punishment

I guess life with computers isn't so rough. But sometimes I wonder if I'm not missing something. I wonder if a kind smile from an understanding teacher really would make me feel a little bit better

THE MANY FACES OF SOUTH

There are many different faces at South. There is the concentrated look of a student tackling a test, the excited glance of a musician, and the jubilant look of a winning athlete. To accomodate these many faces, there are almost as many ways to fill up one's time at South. There are the English, Social Studies, Math, and Science programs plus foreign language, Music, Art, and P.E. To accomodate yet more students, South offers business classes, a BOCES program, and home economics courses

But beneath the many tests, the faces of South make our school what it is. The atmosphere of any place is determined by who inhabits that place. The wide variety of faces adds a certain color and excitement to life at South.

NOT NECESSARILY STUDYING

Whether it is watching television, listening to the stereo blast the latest tunes, or just hanging out, most high school students will do almost never dream of skipping a homework assignment or not studying for a test, but that is to be expected. For most students, studying is a boring and somewhat painful process. Of course, in the end, most of us do buckle down and get the job done, but studying is never as much fun as trying to avoid it

Administration

Dr. John Krause is in his second year as Clarkstown's super intendent. He is more than just the "man who closes the schools on anow days". He has a difficult job which he performs without much acknowledgement.

Dr Krause was educated at Temple, Penn State, and Bloomsburg State Universities. He was a teacher in Pennsylvania, at West Hazelton Elementary. He moved on to be an elementary principal in Elk Township and then working as the principal of Delsea Regional High in Franklinville, N.J. He became superintendent of schools in Southern Gloucester County, N.J., as well as in Middletown, N.Y. He also taught at SUNY Albany, before moving to Clarkstown as Donald Van Wagonen's replacement as superintendent

Or. Krause's role in the school district includes attending school board meetings as the non-voting advisor. He is the "Big man" in the district, a position of high responsibility

Gerold Bieker, Principal

Mr. Gerold Bierker may be new to his position as principal of South High, but he is no stranger to the Clarkstown School District. In fact, Mr. Bierker has been involved in education for quite a while — he has earned his place in the office with the title of principal on the door

In 1964 (after having worked in Tupper Lake, N.Y. as well as in Brooklyn, teaching math) he came to the district as a math teacher at North High. In '71, he was promoted to math department chairman. The next year he moved to the shining new South, as an attendance officer. In 1974, he became assistant principal, a position in which he remained until 1984, when he moved back to North. He stayed for two years as assistant principal, and then returned to South — as its present principal

Mr. Bierker has plans for the high school that he foresees being instituted over 4 or 5 years. He wants to tie up the "loose ends" left by the recent, numerous changes in administration. He stresses an academic focus, an emphasis on the curriculum and course requirements. In the future, the expansion of the performing arts, improved relations to the community and the improvement of students' pride in the school are topics of priority to Mr. Bierker

As for his "disciplinarian" image, Mr. Bierker says that he just has "no problem saying not" He sees good prospects for South High. He intends to work hard to schieve his goals.

Another New Face

Ms Eileen Camasso is certainly at home in Clarkstown's high schools. As the new second floor assistant principal, she is well-suited for her position.

Ms. Camasso was a graduate of North High School (what was then just Clarkstown High). She went to Hunter and Albany State colleges for her undergraduate work and for her graduate work she remained at Albany State. In 1973, she returned to North for her first teaching job as a social studies teacher. She remained there for over nine years.

As for her goals, Ms. Camasso intends to take a hard look at the curriculum. She will also lead the Child Study Team, dealing with problems and conflicts that face the students.

Although she generally deals with negative situations and she sometimes misses teaching, Ms. Camasso still enjoys her work with teenagers.

SETTING AN EXAMPLE

Someone once said young men learn how to be big men in the the presence of big men who care about young men. Mo Scro is a man who cares about his young men. A chapter in the history of football at Clarkstown South will end with the retirement of Maurice Scro. Through his efforts and examples, Coach Scro has taught his athletes to be dignified and respectful men. His contributions will forever live in our minds and hearts. A part of anyone who has ever had anything to do with South football will go out to Coach when he leaves. There will never be a coach at South who will equal what this one man has achieved. From all of the students and faculty at South, our hearts and thanks go out to this great man.

INDERCLASSMEN

FABULOUS FRESHMEN

Felix Festa Jr. High and all of its importance fades with time. South High is new, and the typical freshman is lost in the confusion of his first year.

The school day seems so long, with a hectic eight period schedule. Each teacher demands that his or her subject deserves the most attention, and assigns homework accordingly. A freshman exits the school building with a stack of books in his hands, making his way through the packs of upperclassmen to reach his destination: The Big

Yellow Bus

Eventually the freshman learns that school-life does not end at the two-o'clock bell. It actually begins with afterschool activity. Many clubs and sports provide a release and a cure for those freshman blues.

But every freshman knows that when he becomes an upperclassman, those blues will surely pick up tempo. Or will they.

Freshmen converge through the doors of the school. They climb the steps to the upper level and make their way to their homerooms. #### Flirtatious Freshmen

They giggle, and they chatter. The freshmen never seem to stop their pursuit of a "special friend." They pass notes in various clever manners, to get the word through. They gather in groups to discuss the latest gossip. "Does he like her? . . . " "Does she like him? ... " If the answer is yes, the smiles of delight shine through the hallways.

SUPER SOPHOMORES

Although they are graduated freshmen, sophomores are still uneducated in the horrors of the SAT's, the college applications, and the other frustrations of the junior and senior years. However, they are more knowledgeable than they ever were before.

They are beginning to feel "at Home" in the school, many becoming involved in club activities, as well as in the stands at athletic events. Some sophomores become varsity players in various sports, and gain acknowledgement after having been ignored in their freshman year.

Almost full citizenship is earned as freshman move on to their sophomore status. They feel a certain amount of respect earned in the process. It is the last year of upperclassmen oppression, and it is a year of joy and lack of responsibilities. But, it won't last forever!

Happy Sweet 16

Finally it's here --- the year of the anticipated Sweet 16. The scene is set: foud music, wild outfits and a table stacked with food. Have fun Sophomores Sweet 16 is a once-in-a-lifetime event

On to J.V. teams

No more freshman teams for these athletes. It's time for the big league. Sophomores can now play on Junior Varsity sports teams and on Varsity teams. They are able to put their abilities into play with the upperclassmen. Some of the best players this school has are sophomores!!!

Jolly Juniors

Juniors are certainly not the underclassmen that they were in the past. John Doe, Jr. is much different then John Doe - Junior. He has earned his place in the hierarchy of South's castle system

A Junior works much harder than the average student It is the year of the costume. In other words, it is a year of dressing up for the colleges. Studying, studying, and studying are the three key words synonymous with the Junior year. Maybe, if the student is really good at cramming (that mysterious late night art), he may find his way to a party or two

The Junior Ball is by far the year's highlight (unless you include receiving your perfect 800 test scores.) This year is a clue to what lies ahead in college. The determination and hard work pays off in the end

One More Year

We are all politicians, proclaiming the phrase "one more year" and hoping it is to be so

After this year, the bulk of the work is over, and the senior title is earned. All energy is placed on facing and surviving the Junior Jungle.

College Looking

Barring exceptional brilliance, building donations, or "War Games" -- type computer agility, most juniors busily search for colleges suited for their individuality, achievement and interest.

Most vacations are interupted with a trip to the nearby university. Spare time is spent searching through college catalogs and speaking to guidance counselors about the best college moves

SAT'S/PSAT'S

Sure, we all learned in first grade that the past tense of "sit" is "sat." But, now SAT takes on new meaning. It means pressure, studying, and a stack of number two pencils. Just one question. Why do the colleges think that our filling in circles will show our ability to do college work? A three year old can fill in the circles.

Sneaking into the Senior Lot

So, who says we have to park in our designated area

The Juniors have long parked in the Senior lot because it is closer, more prestigious, and yes, it is forbidden. Never tell a Junior "no." He doesn't know the meaning, although he knows all of the prefixes and suffixes on the SAT vocabulary list the flowers.

Live: Eck, Eck and Bleah

We are proud of you, your integrity, concern for others, your zest for life. Trust in God! Believe in yourself! Dare to dream!

Love, Mom & Dad Erika, Roberta & Elise

We're shared a lot of things. Good times and bad, some happy and others sad. But through it all, we've been together. Now you're about to start out on your own. May you find the happiness and success you seek. And always remember that we love you and you're never alone.

Love Dad, Mom, Jean, Tim & Joe

Dear Lisa.

As we sit here remembering the past 18 years — we realize how much you have given us. Your excitement for everything you do and the joy you get, as well as give, has always been a shining example for us all. For its effort, dedication, commitment to excellence in the production of responsible young men and women, the proud parents of William Derasmo wish to extend to Clarkstown South's entire staff, our gratitude.

Dear Tommy, Dave and Dan,

In 1969 we became parents of three babies,

Tom in January, Dave and Dan in November; what a year for us to remember.

Three babies quickly became boys, played with their toys and gave us many joys

We cared for you and cherished you and showed you the way as best we knew how.

Boys, we're so proud of you now.

Our sons are now fine young men,

Daniel, David, Thomas, you show so much promise

Time goes by too quickly when,

Our children are no longer babies but men.

Our home may soon feel a little empty, less noise,

But our hearts will always be full of our boys

This year, we have become parents of men,

And in 1987, there is still a God in Heaven.

Dear Chrissy,

You are the most special person I've ever met You saw something in me that no one else ever could. You help me whenever I need it. You give me hope when I can't find any myself. To me, you are the meaning of the word inspiration. I hope we always stay together because we have something very special. I hope we never lose each other

I love you now and forever

Dear Lewis

It's very hard for me to write on paper all that I feel to report. For the past three years, you've helped me through the roughest times in my life and shared with me the happens times. Even when our relationship is the happens was a very special personantly a way always remain that way to me

Remembers, the politices we radiate ick firmarity and the nesstance ime

Love you with all my heart!

Harem girls and the bea

handing — I LOVE YOU

ALD ON TO CAUSE W WANT TO

So, what do you want to do tonight?" "I don't know, what do you want to do?"

LOCKERHEAD - "How did you know my hear was stuck?" REDBAG

DANNY'S PARTIES — "Of course there's a party this weekend"

NEW YEAR'S EVE — "I can't stand you but we'll pick you up in 5 minutes." Of course the dead end solved the fight.

THE JR BALL & SELLING THE FLOWERS THE NEXT DAY I GOT ABSOLUTELY NO SLEEP

SKIING & THE BUS RIDE THERE AND BACK "how many people can fit in the bathroom? More importantly how many times are we gonna go in there?"

CUPCAKES - "Jill, we had a dozen, you ate them all?"

10 INCHES!!!! WATER BALLOONS!

"Oh, I thought you were mad at me too."

CHEMISTRY — "How many do you think Mr. McGuire had? No, I'd say 3. But maybe its something else he sigot a lot of energy." "I can't believe he just spilt water all over the floor!" "only 3 more minutes until the bell rings in between lab and class, 2, 1, DING let sigo! Are we the only ones that leave or what? By the way, I thought only day 1 was party day? Well, I guess there goes that one.

FRIDAY NIGHTS!!!!

"Go ahead prove me wrong."

No Jacky, I can't sleep over, it's too hot out"

SOFTBALL ON SUNDAY THEN SWIMMING AT JACKY'S or should I just call you squidette? "Wait Jacky, who came after John? But you forgot Bernie Don't forget Danny, and what about Ricky? That's messed up, it is a good thing you two didn't go out.

By the way, just to clear things up it was two wopper juniors!

How about that car ride to the city "We don't always talk like this. Well, we're from New York. That's our excuse." "No, I can't stay here, I'm scared." "O.K., We'll go to the golf course. I was there the other night." "On the golf course?" "Yeah there was only one problem, I got sand in my hair." But come on, let's all admit it, we always go to the city to buy an ice.

"Come on, everybody does it, you won't be in the 'A' Crowd."

"Don't say anything but you know what ... "

Then there was always that 10-minute movie "Nightmare on Elm Street II" "What ever did happen in that movie?"

Then there was the first night I met Ricky "Where did your mother pick us up last night?"

GREAT ADVENTURE - "Ya know how many rat hairs have been found in hot-dogs?"

THE SHORE & JILL'S LITTLE PROBLEM!

SELLING RAFFLES FOR Y C S. - Y C S ? No, we won't get into that!"

"Jacky — Where are you working now?"

"Jillbur, meet me halfway." "I'm out the door."

"What do you mean he's married? DANNY?! We have to talk."

"A Bogga-bogga uh oh uh"

"What time does it say first period starts on that ditto? Oh- - - I didn't give it to her I can't believe you did that to me!"

"Burger King - you guys work at Burger King?"

Vanilla shake fight — Jill gets fired that night.

And then of course there was Jamaica & the souvenirs that were brought back

And there were those nights just sitting in "the room" "Anne, my legs, I can't feel my legs!" "Well Jill, whenever your late to class, you can always say you got your head stuck in your locker." Really though I did think we would have to call the fire department. But you came around and showed us that ears are bendable Extended homeroom? Who said it was extended? And Then theres FOYT!

Allison — Well what can I say? We've got a triendship that has highs and lows in our relationship we've been able to stay the best of friends. Getting through those tough times. Just seemed to strengthen our friendship. You know that I'll always be there for you just as t know that you'll always be there for me Remember I'm always only a phone call away I truly believe that we possess a friendship that will last our whole lives. After all, who else can you tell All your problems, fears and hopes to "If this world makes you crazy and you've tak en all you can, you can call me up cause you know I'll be there Always remember Driving licenses, long phone calls, sibling alerts, Israel, the trips to the mall the laughter, etc. "through good times and bad times, I'll be on your side for evermore of that you can be sure!

REFLECTIONS OF A SENIOR

Life is so complex ... it's always changing When I was a little girl I used to sleep peacefully and untroubled in my bed My mother, father, and brother were my secure world Then came school and life's responsibilities began to set In a small way Get up, get dressed, kiss from Mom and away for the day Birthdays, Halloween, and Holidays were fun All still part of my secure world as a little girl First, Third, Fifth, Seventh grades Where did they go' Time races by and it's time for Eighth grade New teachers New friends ... Discover boys are fun D in H ston C in Marh Can't seem to get my g a cs on the right path Too many things to do Never end a mile Feeling frustrated a lot of the time Life is so complex ... it's always changing No a py times lumor and Senior bails A houter A beautiful white Camaro .. my first car A loving Morn Haugen Dazs ice creat A nudge for a brother but I love him Sunshine brightening each of my days New friends who were unknown last year Some sad times Visiting colleges Got to pick one fug-of wat with my emotions Don't want to leave my high school friends Don't want to leave home ... go off a sich a le sweet Life is so complex ... it's always cha .... At times I'm happy and full of laughter At times I'm sad and full of tears Parents who have been there say it's part of growing up I know I'm not a little girl anymore . but I'm scared Life is so complex ... it's always changing So I stand on the threshold of a beautiful new experience College If I give it a chance I know I le make it ... with confidence ... dignity ... and grace Because I know I am loved ... while in High School and always Life is so complex . . . but you know what It was a first of the trees. And I'm really going to enjoy College

Can we count the memories? I think that we have more memories than anyone can count to, even you! We always seem to make it through our rough times, coming out stronger. That must mean that we have a real special relationship — and even God knows we do! I just want to thank you for everything you always did for me — the lessons of life you taught me and just all the love you shared with me. I'll always love you — forever!

Congratulations to the Class of 1987.

Dear Sophia,
With love and pride.
Mom and Dad

I know I've said before that "I love you" but I wonder if you really know how strong and sincere my emotions are and how deeply touched
I am by your feelings.

You are such a tender and special person, and you make me feel special just by the way you talk with me, and of your heart I want to give so much in return —

I love you, and I just wanted to let you know . . .
how nice it feels inside
when my smile is showing and my heart is full and my thoughts are all for you.

Our friendship, growing from the

Has strengthened as time has past

The bond between us that we formed I know will always last. Our friendship is a special love The kind that leaves us free Our friendship is a mutual trust That means so much to me Although we have our separate lives And go our separate ways Our friendship remains a continuing joy That brightens many days

We've rarely expressed our feelings That our friendship that is true Yet I have to say I'm proud
